Gov. Reynolds orders state flags at half-staff in honor, remembrance of Barbara Bush

DES MOINES, IA— Gov. Kim Reynolds ordered all state flags in Iowa to be lowered to half-staff effective immediately until sunset on Saturday, April 21, 2018, in honor and remembrance of former First Lady Barbara Bush. The governor’s order is issued in conjunction with President Donald Trump’s proclamation to lower all United States flags to half-staff for the same length of time.

Flags will be at half-staff on the State Capitol Building and on flag displays in the Capitol Complex. Flags will also be half-staff on all public buildings, grounds and facilities throughout the state.

Individuals, businesses, schools, municipalities, counties and other government subdivisions are encouraged to fly the flag at half-staff for the same length of time as a sign of respect.

Winnebago County Resident met with Grassley on Wednesday, April 11, 2018 in Washington, D.C.

Winnebago County Resident Visits Grassley in Washington, D.C.

Washington, D.C. – Sen. Chuck Grassley of Iowa met with Scott Kvammen from Lake Mills, IA in Winnebago County while he was visiting

Washington, D.C. on Wednesday, April 11, 2018. “I enjoyed meeting with Scott,” Grassley said. “I always appreciate the opportunity to meet face-to-face and speak with a fellow Iowan.”

Grassley greeted Scott and spoke about the Senate’s legislative agenda.

Grassley makes it a priority to meet with Iowans visiting Washington, D.C., in addition to events in Iowa, including his Q&A meetings in each of the 99 counties at least once every year. While in the nation’s capital, Grassley sets aside two hours each day to meet with Iowans. He encourages Iowans to write him or visit one of his offices regarding questions or concerns they have with the federal government. Meetings can be scheduled with Grassley at <https://www.grassley.senate.gov/contact/request-meeting>.
