TRUMP IMPEACHED

Democrats: “If we do not act now, we would be derelict in our duty.”

Republicans: “The people of America see through this.”

Next: A trial in the GOP-led Senate.

President Donald Trump became the third president in history to be impeached after the House on Wednesday charged him with “high crimes and misdemeanors” over his request to Ukraine to investigate a political rival.

The vote came after hours of rancorous debate in which lawmakers argued about how the Founding Fathers would have supported or opposed Trump’s impeachment.

Trump was in Battle Creek, Michigan, as the House was voting. “It doesn’t really feel like we’re being impeached,” Trump said, adding that the country has never done better and “we did nothing wrong.”

Next, a rare trial in the Senate to determine whether the president will be removed from office.
